

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

Wednesday, 03.12.2025

12:00-13:00 Registration

13:00-13:30 Welcome to Enjust 2025 | Central Asia

13:00-15:00 Parallel Session 1

Justice I (Conservation) | East Asia | Chair: Irit Ittner

Annie Atkins

Currents of Justice: Integrating Environmental and Ecojustice in Marine Conservation

Prakash C. Tiwari

Rethinking Protected Area Governance in the Hindu Kush Himalaya: Advancing Environmental Justice Under Kunming-Montreal Biodiversity Framework in Marginalized and Underdeveloped High Mountain Landscape

Manasa Sibanda

Environmental Justice or Contested Economic Driven Conservation? Case of Transfrontier Conservation in Zimbabwe (remote)

Markets I | Central Asia | Chair: Dennis Schüpff

Felice Diekel, Linda Paganelli, Rosalie Arendt

Offsetting through a Social-Ecological Systems Perspective: Bridging the Human/Nature Dualism with Science and Art

Kirstine Lund Christiansen, Jens Friis Lund, Kate Dooley, Wim Carton

Three decades of scientific debate on the additionality of offset projects: are we going in circles?

Claudia Horn

The (In)visible Hands of Carbon Markets. The Political Economy of Regulating Carbon Markets in Brazil

Tu Thanh Mai, Lasse Loft

Perceptions of Procedural Justice in Benefit Sharing under Payments for Ecosystem Services Schemes in Vietnam

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break | Entrance Hall

15:30-17:00 Keynote: Maano Ramutsindela, Cape Town | Central Asia

The violence of territory and property in conservation spaces: what options for justice?

17:00-19:00 Opening of exhibitions and welcome reception | Entrance Hall

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

Thursday, 04.12.2025

08:30-10:00 Parallel Session 2

Markets II | Central Asia | Chair: Florian Dünckmann

Lasse Loft

The instrumental importance of considering local equity perceptions for the viability of incentive-based conservation in Vietnam

Juliane Miriam Schumacher

The future of carbon markets. Integration, digital technology and geopolitical competition

Daniel Santander

Solutions for Whom? Forests Monocultures, Carbon Offsets, and Environmental Justice in South America & Chile

Justice in environmental governance I | East Asia | Chair: Jonas Hein

Adnan Mirhanoglu, Eray Cayli

Water and Energy Infrastructure Governance in Northern Kurdistan

Rina Mardiana

Political Ecology of Small Islands in Indonesia

Mariana Zerbone A. Albuquerque, Edvânia Torres A. Gomes

Socio-environmental conflicts in the construction of floodplain parks on riverbanks in Recife, Brazil

10:00-10:30 Coffee Break | Entrance Hall

10:30-12:00 Keynote: Maria Fernanda Figueroa Díaz Escobar, Mexico D.F. | Central Asia

Wicked Environmental Politics for an Age of Simulated Sustainability: Environmental Offset Programs and the Neoliberalization of Nature

12:00 - 12:15 The Last Capital Trust | Central Asia

Performance „Better Investments are Possible: Revolutionizing Environmental Markets for Justice and Pluralism“

12:15 - 13:30 Lunch Break | Entrance Hall

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

13:30-15:00 Parallel Session 3

Markets III | Central Asia | Chair: Regina Ruete

Bernhard Neumärker

The Climate Justice of Carbon-Tax Financed (Partial) Basic Income

Katerina Genidogan

The Transformation of West African Forests into “Climate Capital” and the (Missing) Link Between Decarbonization and Decolonization

Sarah Tegas

Disaster capitalism & forest offsets: from Small Island Developing States to the UNFCCC negotiations

Dumi Chirambo

Enhancing climate justice and sustainable development through market mechanisms in an era of failing multilateralism

Resistance | East Asia | Chair: Silja Klepp

Lizeth Ovalle Saldaña

In Defense of a Reborn River: How Un Río En El Río Forged Relational Values for Environmental Justice

Marie Fischer

Matter and Scale: Rethinking Resistance at Climate COPs

Christopher Pavenstädt

How to Reimagine Climate Futures – The Role of Future Agency in Climate Justice Movements

Eva Backhaus

Rights of Nature: bringing together more-than-human-perspectives, the justice system and art/activism

15:00 – 15:30 Coffee Break | Entrance Hall

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

15:30-17:30 Parallel Session 4

Conservation and violence | Central Asia | Chair: Juan Sebastián Vélez Triana

Justice in environmental governance II | East Asia | Chair: Tim Möschl

Catalina Garcia

Ocean Militarization and Environmental Governance in a Contested Marine Area of the Western Caribbean Sea.

David Camacho Caballero, Alexandra Krendelsberger, Ina Lehmann, Marije Schaafsma, Sara Maestre Andres

Justice in scaling Nature-based solutions – A new conceptual framework

Paula Satizábal

“Now everything we do is illegal!”: governing Illegal, unreported and unregulated (IUU) fishing by punishment and the criminalisation of artisanal fisheries

Georg Buchholz

Towards Transformative Justice in Conservation and Climate Finance. The Case for Basic Income for Nature and Climate (BINC)

Thomas Bobo

A ‘sustainable’ violence? Sustainability discourse and socio-territorial control in the Zapatista conflict

Kelly Peña

Advancing Just Environmental Governance through Tree-Ring Science in Tropical Forests of Southern Ecuador (remote)

Juliana Galindo, Héctor Herrera

A More-than-Human Justice Approach to Warfare Against Nature: The Case of Attacks on Oil Infrastructure in Colombia as Environmental War Crimes

Alexandra Ehresmann

International Organizations, Global Commons, and Environmental Stewardship: The Case of the Runaway International Seabed Authority (ISA).

17:00 – 18:00 Confession and Stress-Test | Entrance Hall

17:30-18:00 Coffee Break | Entrance Hall

17:30-19:00 Enjust Network Session | East Asia

20:00 Conference dinner (self paid) at Tuscolo Münsterplatz

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

Friday, 05.12.2025

09:00-11:30 Group Discussion | Chair: Florian Dünckmann | Central Asia: “Conservation 2.0: how to design protected areas and restoration projects with people and nature”?

11:30-12:30 Lunch Break | Entrance Hall

12:30-14:00 Parallel Session 5

Justice (multi-species) | Central Asia | Chair: Jonas Hein

Celia Ruiz de Oña Plaza, Víctor Manuel Velázquez Durán

“You have to plant more and more mangroves for the sake of the planet”:
bureaucratic violence, precarization of life and privatization of the commons in the implementation of blue carbon projects on the coast of Chiapas, Mexico.

Regina Ruete

The River That Could Not Be Straightened: Infrastructures,
Margins, and Multispecies Life in Buenos Aires, Argentina

Sören Köpke

Viewing human-elephant conflict in South Asia through an expanded environmental justice lens – evidence from Sri Lanka and South India

Justice: narratives and practices | West Asia | Chair: Marie Podien

Juan Sebastián Vélez Triana

Collaborative narratives for social-ecological struggles:
reflections on the creation of a story for children in the Colombian Andes highlands.

Fridah Dermmillah Obare

Wildlife governance in African countries (remote)

Jebby Gonza, Elia Mwanga

Reconciling Biodiversity Conservation and Community Livelihoods:
Practitioner Insights from the Ngorongoro Conservation Area in Tanzania

13:30-14:30 Closing session | Central Asia

14:30-15:00 Coffee | Entrance Hall

15:00 End of the Conference