

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

Wednesday, 03.12.2025

12:00-13:00 Registration

13:00-13:30 Welcome to Enjust 2025

13:00-15:00 Parallel Session 1

Justice I (Conservation)

Annie Atkins

Currents of Justice: Integrating Environmental and Ecojustice in Marine Conservation

Prakash C. Tiwari

Rethinking Protected Area Governance in the Hindu Kush Himalaya: Advancing Environmental Justice Under Kunming-Montreal Biodiversity Framework in Marginalized and Underdeveloped High Mountain Landscape

Manasa Sibanda

Environmental Justice or Contested Economic Driven Conservation? Case of Transfrontier Conservation in Zimbabwe (remote)

Markets I

Felice Diekel, Linda Paganelli

Offsetting through a Social-Ecological Systems Perspective: Bridging the Human/Nature Dualism with Science and Art

Kirstine Lund Christiansen, Jens Friis Lund, Kate Dooley, Wim Carton

Three decades of scientific debate on the additionality of offset projects: are we going in circles?

Claudia Horn

The (In)visible Hands of Carbon Markets. The Political Economy of Regulating Carbon Markets in Brazil

Tu Thanh Mai, Lasse Loft

Perceptions of Procedural Justice in Benefit Sharing under Payments for Ecosystem Services Schemes in Vietnam

15:00-15:30 Coffee Break

15:30-17:00 Keynote: Maano Ramutsindela, Cape Town

The violence of territory and property in conservation spaces: what options for justice?

17:00-19:00 Opening of exhibitions and welcome reception

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

Thursday, 04.12.2025

08:30-10:00 Parallel Session 2

Markets II

Lasse Loft

The instrumental importance of considering local equity perceptions for the viability of incentive-based conservation in Vietnam

Juliane Miriam Schumacher

The future of carbon markets. Integration, digital technology and geopolitical competition

Daniel Santander

Solutions for Whom? Forests Monocultures, Carbon Offsets, and Environmental Justice in South America & Chile

Justice in environmental governance I

Adnan Mirhanoglu, Eray Cayli

Water and Energy Infrastructure Governance in Northern Kurdistan

Rina Mardiana

Political Ecology of Small Islands in Indonesia

Mariana Zerbone A. Albuquerque, Edvânia Torres A. Gomes

Socio-environmental conflicts in the construction of floodplain parks on riverbanks in Recife, Brazil

10:00-10:30 Coffee Break

10:30-12:00 Keynote: María Fernanda Figueroa Díaz Escobar, Mexico D.F.

Wicked Environmental Politics for an Age of Simulated Sustainability: Environmental Offset Programs and the Neoliberalization of Nature

12:00 - 12:15 Rosalie Arendt and Lea Aigner

Performance „Better Investments are Possible: Revolutionizing Environmental Markets for Justice and Pluralism“

12:15 - 13:30 Lunch Break

6th EnJust Conference 2025

Programme

13:30-15:00 Parallel Session 3

Markets III

Bernhard Neumärker

The Climate Justice of Carbon-Tax Financed (Partial) Basic Income

Katerina Genidogan

The Transformation of West African Forests into “Climate Capital” and the (Missing) Link Between Decarbonization and Decolonization

Sarah Tegas

Disaster capitalism & forest offsets: from Small Island Developing States to the UNFCCC negotiations

Dumi Chirambo

Enhancing climate justice and sustainable development through market mechanisms in an era of failing multilateralism

Resistance

Lizeth Ovalle Saldaña

In Defense of a Reborn River: How Un Río En El Río Forged Relational Values for Environmental Justice

Marie Fischer

Matter and Scale: Rethinking Resistance at Climate COPs

Christopher Pavenstädt

How to Reimagine Climate Futures - The Role of Future Agency in Climate Justice Movements

Eva Backhaus

Rights of Nature: bringing together more-than-human-perspectives, the justice system and art/activism

15:00 – 15:30 Coffee Break

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

15:30–17:30 Parallel Session 4

Conservation and violence

Catalina Garcia

Ocean Militarization and Environmental Governance in a Contested Marine Area of the Western Caribbean Sea.

Paula Satizábal

“Now everything we do is illegal!”: governing Illegal, unreported and unregulated (IUU) fishing by punishment and the criminalisation of artisanal fisheries

Thomas Bobo

A ‘sustainable’ violence? Sustainability discourse and socio-territorial control in the Zapatista conflict

Juliana Galindo, Héctor Herrera

A More-than-Human Justice Approach to Warfare Against Nature: The Case of Attacks on Oil Infrastructure in Colombia as Environmental War Crimes

Justice in environmental governance II

David Camacho Caballero, Alexandra Krendelsberger, Ina Lehmann, Marije Schaafsma, Sara Maestre Andres

Justice in scaling Nature-based solutions – A new conceptual framework

Georg Buchholz

Towards Transformative Justice in Conservation and Climate Finance. The Case for Basic Income for Nature and Climate (BINC)

Kelly Peña

Advancing Just Environmental Governance through Tree-Ring Science in Tropical Forests of Southern Ecuador (remote)

Alexandra Ehresmann

International Organizations, Global Commons, and Environmental Stewardship: The Case of the Runaway International Seabed Authority (ISA).

17:30–18:00 Coffee Break

17:30–19:00 Enjust Network Session

20:00 Conference dinner (self paid) at Tuscolo Münsterplatz

6th EnJust Conference 2025 Programme

Friday, 05.12.2025

09:00-11:30 Workshop and panel discussion: "Conservation 2.0: how to design protected areas and restoration projects for people and nature"?

11:30-12:30 Lunch Break

12:30-14:00 Parallel Session 6

Justice (multi-species)

Celia Ruiz de Oña Plaza, Víctor Manuel Velázquez Durán

"You have to plant more and more mangroves for the sake of the planet": bureaucratic violence, precarization of life and privatization of the commons in the implementation of blue carbon projects on the coast of Chiapas, Mexico.

Regina Ruete

The River That Could Not Be Straightened: Infrastructures,
Margins, and Multispecies Life in Buenos Aires, Argentina

Sören Köpke

Viewing human-elephant conflict in South Asia through an expanded environmental justice lens – evidence from Sri Lanka
and South India

Justice: narratives and practices

Juan Sebastián Vélez Triana

Valentía Montes and the Magic Guatila

Fridah Dermmillah Obare

Wildlife governance in African countries (remote)

Jebby Gonza, Elia Mwanga

Reconciling Biodiversity Conservation and Community Livelihoods:
Practitioner Insights from the Ngorongoro Conservation Area in Tanzania

13:30-14:30 Closing session

14:30-15:00 Coffee

15:00 End of the Conference